|                 |                           | In 2003 I was interviewed by two CBP Officers in Port Manatee. Years later I applied for Global Entry and was denied. This incident was brought up. I'm requesting information regarding this interview to understand what role it played in the denial. I was never given any records or paperwork regarding this interview and don't understand why it is in my records. |               |

| CBP-2019-057103 | (b)(6)              | I (a US Citizen) have applied for a green card for my wife and while we were waiting on the process, my wife came to visit me in Michigan. We crossed together at the border crossing in Houlton, ME. We were told that she would not be able to enter the country without proof that she had ties to Canada. We told the officer that my wife had doctors appointments in Canada and had no intentions of staying in the United States permanently. We were told that without an airline ticket she would not be allowed in the country, and we were turned away from the border. We purchased a flight and returned to the same port of entry. My wife was then told by the officer that she would be allowed to enter the States temporarily but then she would have to leave on the specified date on the airline ticket and not return to the States without a green card. She was told that if she attempted to visit me without a green card that she would be denied entry and be permanently banned from the US. I would like to know if her passport was flagged or if this was actually put on record. | 6/3/2019      |

| CBP-2019-057675 | (b)(6)                   | While clearing customs and immigration as a US Air Carrier Crew Member on June 4, 2019, I was advised by the CBP officer to contact a website to clear a problem with my passport. The website given was www.trip.gov and does not exist. And while I haven't been detained, many CBP officers have looked further into my passport record upon entry, (I clear about 20-50 times a year due to my airline job.) I am requesting to know what information has been added to my passport, likely a comment or other such entry, that would be causing pause for the CBP officers upon entry. | 6/5/2019      |

The regulations also include that the detail must be sufficient to enable DHS personnel to locate them with a reasonable amount of effort. The regulation also states that requesters should, but not must, include specific information. My initial request included as the records sought: "subject of record's entire file within you agency." We provided name, date of birth and A number of the subject of record. This information is sufficiently detailed to locate the file of the subject of record. (b)Description of records sought. Requesters must describe the records sought in sufficient detail to enable DHS personnel to locate them with a reasonable amount of effort. A reasonable description contains sufficient information to permit an organized, non-random search for the record based on the component's filing arrangements and existing retrieval systems. To the extent possible, requesters should include specific information that may assist a component in identifying the requested records, such as the date, title or name, author, recipient, subject matter of the record, case number, file designation, or reference number. .... In general, requesters should include as much detail as possible about the specific records or the types of records that they are seeking. .... While a FOIA "is not a search mechanism," as you mentioned in your response letter, FOIA it is the way the public can have access to records from any federal agency, and search in order to accomplish this may be necessary. In this case, my client, is trying to obtain copies of his entire file. | 6/5/2019      |

| CBP-2019-059864 | (b)(6)                     | I would like to obtain all information in regards to my 2012 US travel ban due to misrepresentation. It is under my impression and memory that my travel ban was for a 5 year period which I have more than satisfied and I would like to review the interaction I had as an adolescent and get back in good standing for future vacation travel to and through the USA. In the summer of 2012 I was denied entry at the Vancouver airport (YVR) firstly for a weekend vacation as I did not have sufficient evidence that I was not residing in the USA. I returned to the airport with evidence of my Canadian residency a week later but was turned back again as it was not sufficient. In August of the same year I made the mistake of attempting to enter the United States at the Detroit/Windsor border while still waiting for final confirmation of my work Visa which I believed at the time was in process. The combination of events and denial of my work visa resulted in my ban. I have been advised by council that I need to obtain all the information on the interactions with officers at the three border meetings and any documentation on file regarding my ban in order to take the appropriate steps to gain approval for future travel. | 6/12/2019     |

| CBP-2019-060193 | (b)(6)               | Good day, Please can get a copy of statement I gave at NYC when I voluntarily withdrew my F2 visa application on the 25th of November 2018? The decision to withdraw application was due to the fact that my then husband (now EX) had either changed status and did not inform me about the change. I decided to pay him a visit in order to sort out some marital problems we were facing, only to get to NYC and was informed by the official that my visa was no longer valid. Hence, I decided to withdraw my application and return home. After giving my statement to the officer at the border, I was told my passport and a copy of the form containing my statement will be handed over to the airline (Emirates airline) and that the airline will give them to me when I got back to Nigeria but on getting home, i received only my passport without any statement. I enquired from the Nigerian customs service and I was told that the airline only handed over a brown envelope which contained my passport alone. My guess is that the statement may have been held back by the Dubai authorities where I had a layover. This has left me without a copy of my own. Can I get a copy sent to me? | 6/13/2019     |

I received a partial response yesterday indicating that the cause was 'criminal or dishonest conduct' and that was all that was there - no clarity, no specifics, no explanation as to what the exact problem is and I'm still confused as to the exact issue that is holding my application back. Is there anything specific from my SF-86/eQUIP responses? Is it the fact my license was suspended back when I applied a few months ago, but it has been restored now? Please provide some clarity so I can apply again without worrying about running into this issue - thank you. | 6/14/2019     |

|                 |                       | In 2013 upon my return from a trip abroad, I was detained at San Francisco International Airport for a possible traffic warrant coming out of the state of Georgia. Upon questioning, the officer determined I wasn't aware of any traffic ticket and failure to appear in court that eventually led to the issuance of the warrant. An official letter from the County of Douglasville was sent to me advising the case has been dismissed and ruled as IDENTITY THEFT. I have made several trips outside the country since then without any problem flying through San Francisco Airport, until i flew through Philadelphia in November 2018 and was detained for over 2 hours until the officers clarified with Georgia and determined I was the wrong person. CPB officers in Philadelphia advised me that I need to have the official letter from Douglasville clearing me of any wrongdoing at all times when I travel to avoid being sent to secondary inspection. On Wednesday 19th June 2019, I was stopped again at the Vancouver International Airport and sent for secondary inspection, but, fortunately I had the letter from Georgia with me and was released within 15 mins and the officer there advised me I request for information about me on file, so I can have this resolved and taken off CPB system, because according to the off |               |

|                 |                   | In 2001 or So, I was crossing the border with my dad. We were returning from visiting my aunt in Tijuana. On the way back were were sent to inspection because the officer opened our trunk and somehow someone was hiding in the trunk. We had no knowledge of that person it looks like the person was on drugs so we were detained, question about the person in the truck and we were never handcuffed we were fingerprinted and we were in their waiting area. We had no idea who that person was at all. We never received any documents to appear in court and officers told us we can go. |               |

|                 |                           | in 2018, traveling back from nassau to USA--i was stopped by USCBP in nassau airport because a member of the group i was traveling with had more than 10k USD and he was questioned. i have never traveled with more than 10k USD and never have broken any rules. my global entry was stripped as a result of this. i have no idea what the guilty traveler told USCBP and potentially could have thrown blame at me for something. i dont have any other reason as to why i am now getting stopped for secondary screening each time i re-enter the USA. i am age 40 with some health issues and as a result i have started working less, and traveling more frequently than years past. since the incident last year, i have re-entered the US maybe 10-15 times and always get questioned. please help me understand and help me to clear my name |               |

Looking at the Nexus eligibility requirements, I do not fall under any of the "reasons for ineligibility" so I requested a reconsideration appeal. The reconsideration was also denied and I was not provided with a reason for why the reconsideration was denied. On the denial letter, it stated if I do not know why I was denied, to submit a request for personal records to the CBP/Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Division. This is what this request is for. I would appreciate if you could provide me with my personal records which were used to revoke/deny my Nexus program membership. I have attached both the initial revocation letter along with the reconsideration denial letter. | 6/26/2019     |

On March 25th I requested to the CBP Ombudsman a reconsideration for such revocation since I did not incurred in any violations of the CBP regulations. I received a response on June 20th (attached) saying that they reviewed my membership by the CBP Ombudsman and it has been completed. Based on the information that I provided it has been determined that no change is warranted at this time. I need to understand why I am not eligible to participate in the Global Entry Program. My current work as Director of Quality for North America Operation in Lear Corporation requires me to travel overseas in frequent basis and also to cross the border between Mexico and the USA on daily basis. | CBP-2019-063562 | (b)(6)              | I noticed that there seems to be a mistake on my I-94 record. My I-94 travel record indicates the followings:- Arriving HHW on Sep/04/2014, leaving HHW on Sep/09/2014.- Arriving AGA on Jun/13/2019 and leaving AGA on June/16/2019.However, I have not traveled to these places at this time at all, so I wanted to request more information as well as the procedure to correct this. I have attached a photocopy of the certificate of entry & exit document issued by South Korea in case it is helpful. I am a Korean national, so most of my traveling in and out of the U.S. is to/from South Korea. | 6/27/2019     |
